Membership of National Digital Library of India (NDL), MHRD

All Heads of the department of the University are informed that the National Digital Library of India is a repository of digital contents of books, articles, videos, audios, thesis and other educational materials relevant for students, teachers and researchers. It provides a single-window search facility to access more than 1.7 Crore digital items that will be useful for study, research and teaching.

As per the MHRD directives, all the Heads of the respective department are requested to kindly encourage the faculty members, research scholars and other students to become a member of NDL to utilise the numerous subject specific digital resources. On the basis of available e-mails with the Library, some of the faculties and students are registered by the Library for NDL. These members will receive an e-mail from NDL for verification. Please verify your membership, set your password and access all the e-resources of NDL.

Rest of all the faculties and students of the University are requested to follow the simple steps as mentioned in the following/attached page for becoming the member of NDL at <https://ndl.iitkgp.ac.in>.
